

SAINT BENEDICT CATHOLIC SCHOOL

Summer Reading: Intermediate Grades (3-5)

Fostering a love of reading through the summer months is an integral part of the development of our students, and all genres of literature should be considered for sampling by our students over the summer. Students should feel empowered to read self-selected items based on readability and interest.

Genres to consider: fiction, fantasy, nonfiction, plays, poetry, biography, etc.

Each of the students must read a book of their choice and complete one of the following projects over the summer. The final product is to be brought to school on the first day. The following projects are available for completion:

- Report detailing the plot
- Small poster illustrating and reporting the description of the main character(s)
- Diorama (ex: empty shoe box) of the setting or scene
- Book cover (ex: empty cereal box, small poster)

We cannot wait to see the fantastic, fun-filled projects from our hard working students!

Here are some suggested series from our students:

39 Clues series	Percy Jackson series	Magic Tree House
A to Z Mysteries	Diary of a Wimpy Kid	The Kane Chronicles
The Imagers Chronicles	The Boxcar Children	The Heroes of Olympus
Captain Underpants	Junie B. Jones	Spirit Animals
Geronimo Stilton	The Hardy Boys	The Magic School Bus
Nancy Drew	American Girl	Bones
Amelia Bedelia	Judy Moody	Survivors

Happy summer to all!

Blessings,
The Intermediate Team
